Chorionic Gonadotrophin for Injection BP 2000 / 5000 / 10000 IU

Indications:

Female:
- Anovulatory infertility
- Superovulation
- Corpus Luteum Insufficiency
- Habitual Abortion
- Threatened Abortion

Male:
- Hypogonadotrophic hypogonadism
- Crypto-orchidism
- Oligoasthenospermia
- Azoospermia

Dosage:

FEMALE:
- Anovulatory infertility: 5,000 I.U. or 10,000 I.U. given 24 - 48 hrs.
- Superovulation: 10,000 IU of Choriotec is given in one single injection.
- Corpus luteum Insufficiency: Up to 5000 I.U administered on the 5th day after ovulation and the same dose again on 9th day.
- Habitual abortion / Threatened abortion:
  - Initial dose: 10,000 I.U.
  - Maintenance dose:
    - 5000 I.U. twice weekly until (including) the 14th week of gestation.

MALE:
- Hypogonadotrophic Hypogonadism:
  - Choriotec 2000 I.U. should be given 2-3 times per week.
- Crypto-orchidism:
  - Choriotec, 1000 I.U should be given on alternate days for several weeks.
- Oligo-asthenospermia & azoospermia:
  - Choriotec 2000 I.U. should be given every 5 days and Menotec 75-150 I.U. 3 times a week for three months.
- Renally Impaired Patients: Safety and efficacy not established.

Packing:
- Single dose Vial of 2000 / 5000 / 10000 IU